

Further concentration of broadcast ownership does not serve the public interest, convenience and necessity, and will not promote localism, diversity nor competition. Please do not confuse the self-interest of a few CEOs for the public interest.